HEARING RECORD HELD OPEN

July 29, 2024

RE: SHN-R-105019726

At the hearing on July 29, 2024 01:00 PM the record was held open. The judge is expecting the information listed below. For a free interpretation of this letter please call 800-743-8525.

On 7/29, Claimants submit an updated Position Statement with two documents not previously provided in the initial hearing. Exhibits B and F are new documents in the updated statement. The county has the opportunity to respond to the update and new documents by close of business day Friday, 8/2. The claimants may respond, and the record will close 8/9 end of business day. Considering the new information, the claimants grant a 20-day waiver on the decision due date.

State Hearings has asked for this information by 08/02/2024. You also must send a copy to the other party, unless you are the claimant. If you are the claimant, the other side will get their copy through the appeals computer system. (You do not have to send a separate copy.)

The other party will have until 08/09/2024 to respond to the new information.

If you have any questions about this letter you may call 800-743-8525, or contact the State Hearings Division in one of the ways below:

Put your State Hearing Number on the information you send.

After 08/09/2024, the judge will write the decision with the information in the case at that time.

The claimant agreed to add 20 days to the decision due date. This time was added to give the other party time to respond and for the judge to review all the information.

If you have any questions or need language assistance call the State Hearings Division at 800-743-8525. You can also contact us by one of the four ways listed above.
